

Deep Dive into Capital Clean Energy Carriers Corp.

December 5, 2024

An insightful discussion between Mr. Jerry Kalogiratos, CEO of Capital Clean Energy Carriers Corp. (CCEC), and Mr. Nils Thomessen, Deputy Head of Fearnley Securities, entitled “Deep Dive into Capital Clean Energy Carriers” occurred in the context of Capital Link’s Webinar Series focusing on the shipping sector.

In particular, the speakers delved into CCEC’s conversion from traditional shipping segments to LNG, Liquid CO2, and Ammonia Carriers, aligning with the demands of global energy transition.

During the discussion, the CEO outlined the important role of LNG as a bridge fuel, the company’s strategic divestments, recapitalization, and new C-Corp structure, while addressing market challenges and future opportunities in clean energy transportation.
